

23220. Adulteration of apples. U. S. v. 69 Baskets of Apples. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. no. 33738. Sample no. 17816-B.)

This case involved a shipment of apples which were found to contain lead.

On October 2, 1934, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 69 baskets of apples at Philadelphia, Pa., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about October 1, 1934, by N. J. Fruit & Produce Co., from Glassboro, N. J., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated in that it contained an added poisonous or deleterious ingredient, lead, which might have rendered it harmful to health.

On October 23, 1934, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.

23221. Adulteration of potatoes. U. S. v. James E. O'Neil. Plea of guilty. Fine, $25. (F. & D. no. 33773. Sample no. 65677-A.)

This case was based on an interstate shipment of potatoes labeled "U. S. No. 1", which were found to be below the grade represented, because of excessive grade defects.

On October 5, 1934, the United States attorney for the District of Idaho, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court an information against James E. O'Neil, Idaho Falls, Idaho, alleging shipment by said defendant, in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, on or about March 12, 1934, from the State of Idaho into the State of Illinois, of a quantity of potatoes which were adulterated. The article was labeled in part: "U. S. No. 1 Selected Idaho Three Star Brand * * * Potatoes Packed by 'O'Neil' Idaho Falls, Idaho."

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that potatoes of lower grade than U. S. No. 1 had been substituted for U. S. No. 1 grade potatoes, which the article purported to be.

On October 16, 1934, the defendant entered a plea of guilty and the court imposed a fine of $25.

23224. Adulteration of apples. U. S. v. 867 Bushels, et al., of Apples. Consent decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond conditioned that deleterious substances be removed. (F. & D. nos. 34518, 34705, 34706, 34707. Sample nos. 13792-B to 13796-B, incl., 13805-B, 13806-B, 13807-B, 13812-B to 13825-B, incl., 24826-B to 24830-B, incl., 24832-B to 24835-B, incl., 24837-B, 24840-B, 24847-B, 24848-B.)

These cases involved interstate shipments of apples that bore excessive arsenic and lead spray residue.

On or about October 19, 23, and 24, 1934, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, acting upon reports by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court libels praying seizure and condemnation of 7,397 bushels of apples at Blue Island, Ill., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce, in part by the Thomas S. Smith Co., and in part by Herman Onken, from Fennville, Mich., between the dates of September 12 and October 10, 1934, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it contained added poisonous and deleterious ingredients, arsenic and lead, in amounts which might have rendered it injurious to health.

On November 1, 1934, the cases having been consolidated, and Thomas S. Smith & Co., Fennville, Mich., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libel and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered that the product be released under bond conditioned that the apples be cleaned under the supervision of this Department, to remove the spray residue.

23225. Adulteration of apples. U. S. v. 100 Baskets of Apples. Consent decree of condemnation. Product released under bond for removal of deleterious substances. (F. & D. no. 83407. Sample no. 5578-B.)

Examination of the apples involved in this case showed the presence of lead and arsenic.

On August 16, 1934, the United States attorney for the Western District of Pennsylvania, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 100 baskets of apples at Pittsburgh, Pa., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce, on or about August 11, 1934, by the American Fruit Growers, Inc., from Lockport, N. Y., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it contained added poisonous or deleterious ingredients, arsenic and lead, which might have rendered it harmful to health.

On August 18, 1934, the American Fruit Growers, Inc., claimant, having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be released under bond conditioned that it be brought into conformity with the law under the supervision of this Department. The deleterious ingredients were removed by acid washing.
